The David Todd Family (owner), and Heffner/Carrigan and Carman Families of Terrace Park began raising money in 2001 with a charity shoot for Shriners Hospital for Children. Over the next 20 years, these and other volunteers raised $1,000,030 for charities through two day shooting events every September, with Shriners Hospital receiving over $900,000. The Navy SEALS, Beechwood Home, Young Life, Stepping Stones, Breakthrough T1D (formerly JDRF), the SPCA, Level Up, Junior Achievement, various conservation groups, including Pheasants Forever, and Scouting America Dan Beard Council are some of the many organizations Sycamore has hosted. Sycamore's generosity and hospitality have facilitated over $4 million in total net proceeds over the past 25 years. This July, at historic, family-owned Sycamore Sporting Clays, we will serve those who have served all of us. Join us and shoot, sponsor a first responder team, sponsor a meal, be an event sponsor, and definitely spread the word!
